

Things to do in Ushuaia

Ushuaia, known as "The End of the World", offers a wide variety of activities to enjoy its beautiful natural environment.

Here are some options:

1. Explore Tierra del Fuego National Park:

This park will allow you to enjoy incredible landscapes, hiking trails, lakes and rivers. You can also take a ride on the Train of the End of the World, which runs along ancient roads used by prisoners a long time ago.

2. Sailing the Beagle Channel:

A boat trip with CANOERO CATAMARANS along this canal will allow you to enjoy panoramic views of the coast, watch birds and sea lions, and visit the famous Lighthouse Les Eclaireurs.

3. Mountain activities:

Ushuaia is an ideal destination for hiking, ice climbing, skiing, snowboarding and exploring the glaciers. The Martial Hill is a popular choice for hiking and skiing.

4. Visit the Maritime and Presidio Museum:

This museum gives you the opportunity to learn about the naval history and prison of the region. You can explore old cells and learn about shipwrecks in the area.

5. Tour the center of Ushuaia:

Stroll through the city to enjoy its picturesque architecture, craft shops and restaurants offering regional delights such as Patagonian lamb and crab.

6. Bird watching and marine wildlife:

Ushuaia is a paradise for wildlife lovers. You can embark on a bird watching tour, whale watching and other marine animals.

7. Enjoy water sports:

If you love adventure, you can kayak on the Beagle Channel or go sport fishing on the region's rivers and lakes.

These are just some of the activities you can do in Ushuaia. The city and its surroundings offer many options to enjoy the nature, culture and history of the region.

I HOPE YOU HAVE A WONDERFUL TIME ON YOUR VISIT TO USHUAIA!

Recommended restaurant options in Ushuaia:

Kemu Restaurant:

Kemu Restaurant is more than just a place to eat; it's an experience that connects roots, fire, and memory.

As you step inside, the outside world fades away into intense aromas and textures that tell stories.

Here, each dish honors the land and its traditions, inviting you to share not just a meal, but a sacred moment.

Kemu is a ritual of simplicity, essence, and deeply satisfying flavor.

Remember that "Kemu Restaurant" is located inside Los Yámanas Hotel.

Kaupe:

This restaurant offers a mix of regional and contemporary cuisine.

Its dishes are made with fresh, local ingredients, including Patagonian lamb and seafood. It also has an excellent wine list.

Tante Sara:

A classic in Ushuaia, this family restaurant serves traditional regional dishes, such as crab, Patagonian lamb and homemade pasta. It is also known for its delicious desserts.

El Viejo Marino:

Located in the port of Ushuaia, this restaurant is famous for its seafood dishes and fresh fish. It offers a range of options, from crab to black hake.

El Almacén de Ramos Generales:

This restaurant and warehouse is a cozy and picturesque place, ideal to try typical dishes of the region, such as stews, empanadas and fried cakes. You can also buy local products in their shop.

Kuar:

With a gastronomic proposal based on local and organic ingredients, this restaurant offers a wide variety of vegan and vegetarian dishes. There are also gluten-free options.

These are just some of the recommended restaurants in Ushuaia. The city offers a wide range of dining options, from regional to international cuisine. Remember to check opening times and make reservations, especially during the high season. Enjoy your meal!